If we have denied your requested amendment/correction, you have the right to submit a written statement disagreeing with the denial and your reason for disagreement. We may reasonably limit the length of your written statement, and we may prepare a rebuttal to your written statement of disagreement (and provide you with a copy).

If we have denied your requested amendment/correction and you do not submit a written statement of disagreement as discussed above, you may request that we include a copy of this document with any future disclosures of the information identified in questions 1 and 2. Please make your request in writing, and sign and date the request.

If you believe we have failed to meet our obligations as explained in our "Notice of Privacy Practices" or our legal obligations under state or federal law, you may contact our Privacy Officer regarding your complaint, and you may file a complaint with Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services within 180 days of the date you know or should know of the act that is the subject of your complaint. Your complaint to the Secretary must be filed in writing, either electronically, or on paper.
